TRIP ITINERARY

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS):

1. What is the best time to take this tour?

The ideal season is from May to October, when all major routes including Babusar Pass, Fairy Meadows, Khunjerab Pass, and Deosai Plains are accessible.

2. What is the fitness level required for this trip?

A moderate level of fitness is recommended. The trek to Fairy Meadows and optional hike to Nanga Parbat Base Camp involve walking on mountain trails. No technical climbing experience is required.

3. What type of accommodation is provided?

The package includes carefully selected luxury and premium hotels/resorts on a twin-sharing basis, offering comfort, scenic views, and modern amenities wherever available.

4. What meals are included?

Daily breakfast and dinner are included throughout the tour. Lunches are generally taken at selected local restaurants during sightseeing excursions.

5. What kind of vehicle is used?

A luxury Toyota Coaster with an experienced mountain driver is used throughout the road journey.

6. Are domestic flights included?

Yes. The package includes a one-way flight from Skardu to Islamabad, subject to weather and airline operations.

7. What happens if the Skardu flight is cancelled?

Flights in northern Pakistan can occasionally be affected by weather. In such cases, guests may return to Islamabad by road or take the next available flight, depending on conditions and availability.

8. Is Pakistan safe for international tourists?

Northern Pakistan is widely regarded as one of the safest and most welcoming regions for tourists. Local communities are known for their hospitality, and the tour is operated with professional guides and drivers.

9. Will there be internet and mobile connectivity?

Mobile coverage is available in major towns such as Islamabad, Hunza, and Skardu. Connectivity may be limited or unavailable in Fairy Meadows and some remote mountain areas.

10. Are ATMs and credit cards widely accepted?

Cash is recommended for personal expenses. ATMs are available in Islamabad, Gilgit, Hunza, and Skardu, but card acceptance is limited in remote areas.

11. Is this tour suitable for families and senior travelers?

Yes. Families, couples, solo travelers, and active senior travelers can enjoy this itinerary. Some trekking sections can be adjusted according to guests' preferences.
